

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 26.

W. G. BROWNLOW, more commonly known as Parson Brownlow, has just been elected by the hogs Legislature of Tennessee to the United States Senate. As it is no honor even to a Brownlow to enter a body over which a Wade is called to preside, the Legislature must have sent him to Washington in sheer disgust. It must be very hard even for an East Tennessee loyalist to endure long the torrent of ribald blackguardism and blasphemy which flows from this sandy patriot. A little book containing extracts from the Knoxville Whig of ten years ago lies before us, and it is curious to note with what savage vehemence he was then pouring out against the North the same rage and hate that he is now directing against the people of the South. In Oct., 1857, he was raving fearfully against "pious freedom shriekers," and "the big buck negro Douglass." If the latter should venture to reply to him "I would serve him," he says, "as Rusk, of Arkansas, did Greeley in Washington, for his violence. I would wear him out on the pavement with a big stick." He writes to the N. Y. Times an account of a crime recently committed by a negro, and says: "For this the negro was born alive ten or fifteen hundred of the best citizens of the county attending and aiding and abetting. I repeat, it was all perfectly right." He cites scores of Scripture texts to demonstrate the lawfulness of slavery, and reviles the "vagrant philanthropists of the North" for denouncing it. He searches the records of crime to prove that "the New England States, including that of New York, are so many nurseries of all that is wicked, immoral, demoralizing and dangerous, social and political, which now threatens the overthrow of virtue and religion in the Union." He says the "course of the Northern people," if continued "five years" longer, must result in a war which would end in the destruction of the Republic. He terms the "villainous abolitionists" "slave-stealing people," and "God-forsaken hypocrites." He tells the Northern people that there is not a runaway slave north of Mason's and Dixon's line "who is not a honorable and worthy confederate as any Black Republican editor, politician or preacher in any ungodly dominion." He expresses a strong wish to meet Theodore Parker "on Northern soil and to spit upon him before a public audience," and is especially disgusted with that "low-down demagogic and third-rate man," Henry Wilson. Such was Brownlow, editor and parson, in 1857. Six years afterwards he said of the Southern people: "Let them be punished—let them be impoverished—let them be slain, and after slain, let them be damned."—Baltimore Gazette.

AUCTION SALES.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF VALUABLE LAND, IN KING GEORGE COUNTY, VA.
By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of King George County, pronounced in the suit of Quisenberry's Administrators vs. Quisenberry and others, the subscribers, their appointed Special Commissioners for that purpose, will expose to public sale, on THURSDAY, the 5th day of December, 1867, (what being Court day at King George Co. Va.) the tract of land, in the decree and proceedings mentioned, called "THE COTTAGE," containing 724 acres. It is situated in King George County, on a branch of the Potomac river, and is bounded on two sides by that creek and Williams creek. The land on the farm is accessible to steamboats and all the facilities for delivering grain or wood. The improvements consist of a small but comfortable Frame Dwelling House, good Barns, Stables, a Corn House, Servant's Houses, two Houses, a pump, &c. The farm is in fine condition, the land level, well adapted to the use of the planter. It is also, and is justly considered the most desirable real estate in that portion of the county. It is well enclosed with good and substantial fencing, and the several fields also separated by good fences. There is a plenty of water, carried in abundance for the use of the plantation. It is, altogether, a most desirable tract of land, for all agricultural purposes.
The TERMS OF THE SALE, as prescribed by the decree, are: One-third of the purchase money in cash; one-third in 12 months, and the remaining third in 24 months from the day of sale, carrying interest from the day of sale, and the deferred payments to be secured, after the confirmation of the sale, by a lien on the land.
Unless otherwise notified of a change, the sale will positively be made at the time and place specified. Information in regard to the sale, or order of this estate, may be obtained by letter, addressed to Wm. S. Brown, esq., Cornum, King George County, or Dr. R. H. Stuart, Edgo Hill, King George County, or to either of the subscribers. Any person wishing to purchase, however, had better visit the premises, and examine for himself.
JULIUS J. MASON, WM. A. LITTLE, King Geo. Co., oc 23-4w Com'rs.

BY JOHN H. PARROTT—AUCTIONEER.
VIRGINIA OF A DEED OF TRUST.
dated October 14, 1859, executed by Mat the Meagher and wife, I will, on SATURDAY, the 2d day of November next, at 12 m, in front of the Mayor's Office, Alexandria, Va., expose to public auction, the following property:
A LOT OF GROUND, in the city of Alexandria, Va., situated on the west side of Fairfax street, between Cameron and Queen, 18 feet 10 inches front, running back 128 feet 5 inches, with the right of way over a ten feet alley, binding the lot on the north. In the proper part of a plat of D. W. LIVING, a brick and part frame, with a brick back building covered with slate, and, also, a substantial brick stable, which may be used as a storehouse. Terms cash.
C. F. LEE, Trustee.

At the same time and place, the undersigned will offer for sale the LOT OF GROUND, on the north side of the alley described above, 27 feet 5 inches, by 39 feet 12 inches.

"DR. STONEBRAKER'S" RAT EXTERMINATOR.
The surest exterminator of rats ever offered to the public.
Read the following certificates from the citizens of Baltimore, as to its merit as a rat destroyer:
Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.,
Gent: My warehouse, on Howard street, was completely overrun by rats. I used a bottle of "Dr. Stonebraker's" Rat Exterminator, and, truly, it is an exterminator. It cleared the warehouse of rats, and have had no return of them, and it has been four months since I used it.
WM. P. LANSFORD, 77, Corner Howard and German streets, Baltimore, May 13, 1867.
Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.,
Gent: We were very much troubled with rats in our Store. Dr. Stonebraker's Rat Exterminator being highly recommended to us, we used one bottle of it, and it proved itself worthy the high recommendations it had received as a Rat Destroyer. We have not been troubled with rats since the first night we used it.
HOPKINS, HARDY & CO., Baltimore, May 15, 1867.
Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.,
Gent: The bottle of Dr. Stonebraker's Rat Exterminator, purchased of you, has proved to be death to rats. I used it early one night, according to directions, and the next morning I counted nine dead rats in the yard. They come out of their holes to die.
